23. This medicine resteres to manly vigor and robust health the poor debilitated, worn-down and despring devotee or sensual pleasure.

23. The listiess enervasted youth, the over tasked man of business, the victim of nervous depression, the individual suffering from general debility, or from weaknoss of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief by the use of this Elixir

ORGANIC WEAKNESS
Immediately cared and Fall Vigor Bestored.
This Distressing Affection—which renders Life and Marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sconer by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Bendes being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, a wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS. No Mercury or Nauseous Drugs. DR. JOHNSTON.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most satunishing cures that were evar known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervounces, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent binshing, attended semetime with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have jointed them.

its, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

Tursk are some of the sad and meiancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, vis: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepeia, Nervous Igritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, tieneral Beblility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Estbodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

THOURANDS of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and erraciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

YOUNG MEN YOUNG MEN
Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured reeders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.
What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature and indulating in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemp'ating

MARRIAGE,

Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote counubial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrinage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes neighted with our own MARRIAGE

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it to otten haspens that an ill-timed scuse of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, irom cducation and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased noce, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the painte of the mouth or the bonnes of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, until death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveler returns."

It is a seclambely fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the machifulness of ignorant pretanders, who, by the fire of that Deadly Poison, Mercury, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.
